Danville, CA – The Exchange Club of the San Ramon Valley will hold its annual “Child Abuse Prevention Day” Resource Fair on Saturday, April 26, 2025, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM.

This annual event will take place on the North Patio at Lunardi’s Market, 345 Railroad Avenue, Danville.

“The National Exchange Club holds events like this throughout the year, designed to keep our kids safe. We are proud to once again offer this event, in partnership with Danville Police Department and the San Ramon Valley Fire Protection District, to the community at-large,” said Tim White, President of the Exchange Club of the San Ramon Valley.

The event features safety resources for parents and includes two petty zoos for kids – the Little Explorers and Jungle James zoos, which have become a community favorite. The San Ramon Valley Fire Protection District will have personnel and their fire truck on site.
